

Libraries
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

PLEASE POST

WORLD DOWN SYNDROME DAY Mismatched Socks Celebration 2023

A variety of events showcasing World Down Syndrome Day and Mismatched Socks Day. Events include a decorating event in Makerspace, a book display, and an event in the DSL Flexspace.

Tuesday, March 21, 2023
2:00—7:00 p.m.

MSU Main Library, 2-West

366 West Circle Drive, East Lansing MI 48824

Free & Open to the Public.
Refreshments Provided!
All are Welcome!

www.worlddownsyndromeday.org

Crazy Sock Day: Make Your Own Socks!

Tuesday, March 21 • 3:00–5:00 pm

Makerspace Flex Area (Main Library, 2-West)

Every year people celebrate World Down Syndrome Day by wearing eye-catching socks! Come and decorate socks to show your support for Down Syndrome! We will provide socks and decorating materials for you to create your own crazy socks.

Crazy Sock Day: Fashion Show

Tuesday, March 21 • 5:00–6:00 pm

Makerspace Flex Area (Main Library, 2-West)

Join us at 5 o'clock to rock your socks! A fashion show displaying all of our creative sock designs and showcasing all of the unique ways we support World Down Syndrome Day!

Book Display

Makerspace Flex Area (Main Library, 2-West)

A selection of books related to the subject of Down syndrome will be featured at the event. Attendees wishing to check out any of these materials may scan the QR code to be linked to the Borrowing at MSU Libraries web page.

NOTE: Michigan residents at least eighteen years old may apply for community privileges by showing a valid Michigan driver's license or State of Michigan picture ID card containing the mailing address for the individual's residence. For information about Borrowing at MSU Libraries, visit: <https://lib.msu.edu/circ/borrowing-at-msu>

lib.msu.edu | @MSULibraries

For parking information, please visit <http://maps.msu.edu/interactive>.

Persons with disabilities may request accommodations by calling 517-884-6454 one week before an event.

